

Please note that all measurements are in centimetres.

To use: Please measure your body and find the closest measurement, then order that size.

For best results have another person take your measurements and measure firmly against your body, holding the measuring tape horizontal the whole way around.

The measurements provided are body measurements. All measurements provided are approximate and for reference only. The size guide chart is a guide only, the best way to determine your size is always to try the garment on.

Results will vary based on individual wearer's fitting preference. Some guidelines that may help to read the size charts:

- If your measurement falls exactly half way between 2 sizes, consider how you would prefer the garment to fit. For a slightly firmer fit, take the smaller size. For a more relaxed fit, choose the larger size.
- For tops, if your measurements spread you across 3 different consecutive sizes, generally you can choose the centre size. EG Bust 8, Waist 12, Hip 10. You can go with the size 10.
